NEW SERIES 1999 UNCUT SHEETS OF $1.00 NOTES AVAILABLE

The Bureau of Engraving and Printing is now offering for sale the new Series 1999 uncut $1.00 notes.

The notes bear the signatures of Lawrence H. Summers, Secretary of the Treasury, and Mary Ellen Withrow, Treasurer of the United States.

Uncut sheets of currency make wonderful gifts for that "hard-to-buy-for" individual. They are perfect gifts for birthdays, graduations and weddings. They are also used for employee awards and customer incentives.

16 SUBJECT $10 STAR NOTES

For the first time in history, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing will offer for sale to the public, 16-subject uncut sheets of $10 Star Notes. These uncut sheets sell for $199.

Star Notes were first used in 1910. They were produced in all denominations to replace currency notes that were removed from regular production due to damage, research, or testing.

Star Notes have the same security features of other notes, but can be distinguished by a star in lieu of a suffix letter at the end of its serial number.
